Fantastic Mr Fox Activities

1. Read the extracts from *Fantastic Mr Fox

- Read chapter one which introduces the three farmers, Boggis, Bunce and Bean.
- Underline any words in the text which describe the characters – you could use a different colour for each farmer.
- Read chapter two which introduces Mr Fox. Underline any words in the text which describe him.

Try the Fun-Time Extras

- If you have it, watch the rest of the Fantastic Mr Fox film.
- The book's name Fantastic Mr Fox is alliterative (uses the same letter at the beginning of the words for effect). Can you give yourself an alliterative name that describes your character? For example, Exciting Enya or Brave Brody. Try doing this for other friends and family too.

Next Activities: Reading *Fantastic Mr Fox

- Read the summary of events in the story so far.
- Read chapter 16 which describes what happens in Bean's cider cellar.

Fantastic Mr Fox Activities

- Look back at chapter 16 and find some past tense verbs (hint – look for doing words with -ed endings). Practise changing them into the present perfect form by adding has or have.
  - Complete the present perfect forms activities. Start with activity one, challenge yourself to see if you can do all three!
- Top tip: If unsure then practice with the activity sheets in your pack.

Write a story that is similar to this one.

Make a story map with pictures and labels to help you.

Imagine another fantastic animal who doesn't get on with the farmers.

Heroic Henry Hare - etc.

Draw a picture of your animal and describe him/her using your senses:
looks, fur, smell, sound
